

The Geography Program and the UNBC Geography Club would like to make you aware of events scheduled to celebrate Geography Awareness Week

DATES: November 13 - 17, 2006

LOCATION: venues throughout Prince George campus

DETAILS:

- * Geography through Film (join us for FREE movies on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday @ 7:30pm in Rm. 7-158)
- * Monday: The Day after Tomorrow, Introduced by Dr. Kevin Hall
- * Tuesday: Syria, Introduced by Dr. Catherine Nolin
- * Wednesday: Bend it Like Beckham, Introduced by Dr. Greg Halseth
- * 'Sense of Place' Haiku and Limerick Contest (submit entries by Thursday @ 4pm – entry forms available in Geography Office & various UNBC locations)
- * Prize awarded to best 'sense of place' haiku and limerick
- * Geography Club Bake Sale (Thursday from 10am in Winter Garden)
- * Proceeds to help members of the Geography Club attend the Western Division of the Canadian Association of Geographers Annual Meeting in March 2007
- * Play 'Jeopardy' and answer questions about human geography, physical geography & Geomatics (Register teams of up to 4 UNBC students by Thursday at 12pm - register in Geography Office) Limited number of teams accepted -REGISTER EARLY!