Location: OH 1003

Facilitators: Gita Ljubcic and Jon Corbett, Organizer: Gita Ljubcic

This session is meant to be an informal discussion to follow on from a series of presentations on participatory mapping in Indigenous research throughout the day. This roundtable is seen as an opportunity to share personal stories and experiences with participatory mapping in various phases of research that might not normally fit within the time or space restrictions of formal presentations or publications. Through openness and humour, all are encouraged to share stories or ask questions in support of learning about different experiences and practices with participatory mapping in Indigenous research contexts. Ultimately it is hoped that these discussions can contribute towards a supportive community of practice for those engaged with participatory mapping.

Many thanks! We hope to see you in Quebec City in 2018!

Merci beaucoup! Nous espérons vous voir à Québec en 2018!

Welcome! / Bienvenue!

The organizers of the 2018 CAG Annual meeting and International Geographical Union Regional Conference are busy preparing to welcome you to beautiful Quebec City from August 6th to 10th 2018. A website is now available with preliminary dates and other information. Please check back often, as we are adding information weekly. We have more than ten exciting excursions in human, physical, rural and urban geography on offer, as well as a growing lineup of exciting Canadian and international speakers who will be addressing the conference theme, "Appreciating Difference". The official call for papers and sessions will take place in October 2017. Quebec City is definitely a place that you will want to bring your families in order to enjoy world-class museums and restaurants as well as some of the most stunning natural and cultural scenery in North America. For more information and links to Tourism Quebec, please visit the conference website: igu2018.ulaval.ca

Les organisateurs du congrès annuel de l'ACG et le congrès régional de l'Union Géographique Internationale 2018 s'appliquent à préparer un accueil chaleureux dans la ville de Québec. Cet événement bilingue aura lieu du 6 au 10 août 2018. Notre site web est maintenant en fonction (adresse ci-dessous) où vous y trouverez les dates préliminaires ainsi que de l'information sur le congrès. Restez à l'affut : de nouveaux renseignements y sont ajoutés régulièrement. Nous proposons une dizaine d'excursions de géographie humaine, physique, rurale et urbaine ainsi qu'un éventail grandissant de conférenciers de calibre national et international qui élaboreront leurs discours autour du thème «Apprécier la différence». L'appel à sessions et l'appel à communications commenceront en octobre 2017. La ville de Québec est une destination idéale pour vos familles qui pourront profiter des musées de classe mondiale, des nombreux restaurants et de paysages naturels et culturels parmi les plus spectaculaires en Amérique du Nord. Pour plus d'information sur le congrès et sur la ville de Québec, consultez notre site web: ugi2018.ulaval.ca
