Land and Resource Coordinator

$69,969.42 - $89,774.32 annually, plus $37.64 bi-weekly isolation allowance for Smithers.

Join the Ministry of Water, Land, and Resource Stewardship as a Land and Resource Coordinator in the Skeena Region's Land Use Planning and Cumulative Effects team. We're a group of seven professionals dedicated to tackling land use issues across Northwest BC in collaboration with Indigenous Nations. As a team, we work with policy advisors, communication specialists, analysts, project managers, negotiators, and directly with Indigenous governments to shape the future of British Columbia's landscapes.

In the Land and Resource Coordinator role, you'll spearhead coordination of land use planning processes to foster collaborative stewardship with Indigenous partners. This position involves coordination, analysis, communication, and innovative thinking to address challenges. You'll have the opportunity to engage with partners within and outside of government and to contribute to initiatives that shape the future of landscapes.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.
